

CALL FOR PAPERS

I Jean Monnet Network Conference - BRIDGE EU-Latin America Trade and Investment Relations University of Lisbon, Portugal

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

1. PUBLIC CALL

1.1 The Project Jean Monnet Network “Building Rights and Developing KnowledGE between the European Union and Latin-America – BRIDGE Project”, co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union, and the Latin-American Center for European Studies invite the academic community to submit scientific papers to the Workshop of the I Jean Monnet Network Conference – BRIDGE “EU-Latin America Trade and Investment Relations”, on 15 March 2021, at 19:00, Lisbon Time (Portugal – UTC +0).

1.2 Authors must submit papers by 8 February 2021, at 23h59, Lisbon Time (Portugal – UTC +0) to the email network@eurolatinstudies.com.

1.3 The topic of the papers is restricted to the subject “EU-Latin America Trade and Investment Relations”.

1.4 Only papers written in English, Spanish or Portuguese will be accepted.

1.5 Papers must have between 15-20 pages and must follow the Instructions (Appendix I)

1.6 Submissions must be sent by e-mail with the following file extensions: .doc or .docx. The message body must have the following information: a) Name of the author(s); b) Bibliography of the author(s) – up to 50 words per author, c) E-mail of the author(s); d) Title of the paper.

1.7 The Organising Committee will communicate to authors by e-mail about the results of the submissions by 1 March 2021.

1.8 The Organising Committee may request revisions to the papers sent by authors. In this case, authors must submit the paper with the required changes no later than 8 March 2021.

1.9 Twelve papers will be accepted, of which:

- The two best articles will receive an award equivalent to EUR 250 and will be published in the Thematic Dossier of the 1st Edition of the Latin American Journal of European Studies.
- The authors of the six best articles (including the two mentioned in the previous item) will present their work at the online Conference.

- Other approved papers (up to twelve) – with the exception of the two winners – will be published in the Collection of the Conference, organised by the publisher Editora da Faculdade de Direito de Lisboa, Portugal (AAF DL Editora).

1.10 During the online Conference, each author will have 10 minutes to present their work.

1.11 Presentations will be held in English, Spanish or Portuguese.

1.12 When the maximum time of 10 minutes is up, the chairman of the panel may end the presentation to ensure compliance with both the event schedule and this public call. At the end of all presentations, 20 minutes will be available for a Q&A session.

1.13 The full schedule of the Conference will be available on the website www.eurolatinstudies.com.br.

1.14 Text format: All papers must comply with the rules of the style layout in the appendix. Papers that are not in accordance with the guidelines in the Instructions section will not be accepted.

1.15 Copyright assignment: At the time of the publication, the author assigns to BRIDGE Project all copyright for publication and reproduction related to the work, with no payment for copyright.

1.16 Questions: Any question related to the Conference has to be addressed over email to network@eurolatinstudies.com.

Lisbon, 24 November 2020.

Organising Committee

Nuno Cunha Rodrigues (University de Lisbon, Portugal)
Elizabeth Accioly (European University of Lisbon, Portugal)
Aline Beltrame de Moura (Federal University of Santa Catarina, Brasil)

Appendix I – Guidelines for Authors

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

The following conditions and guidelines for authors apply to all manuscripts submitted for the Call for Papers.

1. CONDITIONS FOR SUBMISSION

The conditions for submissions are the ones established in the Call for Papers.

2. STYLE GUIDELINES

2.1 Format

Articles must be submitted in .doc format, A4 size paper, 3.0 cm left and top margins, 2.0 cm right and bottom margins. The article must be written in Times New Roman font (size 12), justified alignment and 1.5 line spacing. The first line of each paragraph must contain a 2 cm indent in relation to the left margin. References must be made in footnotes, Times New Roman font (size 10) with justify alignment.

Italics: Italics must be used for all words in a language other than the manuscript, including Latin expressions and figures of speech. If you want to emphasize part of the text, use italics. Bold and underlined words are not allowed.

2.2 Structure

When preparing the article, authors must obey the following sequence:

- a. Title: with a maximum of 240 characters with spacing. The title must be in uppercase and in bold, centered at the top of the first page.
- b. Abstract: the abstract should contain 150 to 300 words, indicating the intended objectives, the methodology and a summary of the conclusions. It must be preceded by the word “ABSTRACT”, in capital letters, justified alignment and with simple spacing.
- c. Keywords: three keywords, separated by semicolons, preceded by the term “KEYWORDS”, in uppercase, justified alignment, with simple spacing.

d. Translated title, abstract and keywords: Articles must contain title, abstract and keywords in the original language of the text of the article and in English, when this is not the original language. If it is written in English, you must present the translation of these textual elements in Spanish or Portuguese.

e. Summary: containing the items addressed in the article, organized in enumerated subtitles. The formatting of the items and sub-items of the manuscript must follow a numerical sequence, excluding the introduction, final considerations and bibliographical references - that should not be numbered.

Ex.: SUMMARY: Introduction; 1. Xxx; 1.1. Xxx; 1.1.1 Xxx; 1.2. Xxx; 2. Xxx; 2.1. Xxx; 3. Xxx; 3.1 Xxx; 3.2 Xxx; Final Consideration; Bibliographical References.

f. Body of the text: respecting the format guidelines (2.1).

- Subtitles: The body of the text should be divided into items corresponding to each part of the article, listed as described above (item 2.2, “e”). These items must be referenced at the discretion of the author. The items "Introduction" at the beginning of the article and "Final Considerations" at the end of the article are mandatory. Subheadings must be numbered, justified and in bold. There must be a space after the text that precedes them and a space on the line immediately above the text that follows them.
- Numbers: use words for numbers from 1 to 9 and Arabic numerals from 10 onwards.
- Citations: citations must be made in the body of the text, using quotation marks, without italics or bold, respecting the rules indicated in item 2.3.
- References throughout the text: references made throughout the text must be in a footnote, following the model indicated in item 2.4.
- Footnotes: Footnotes can be explanatory and / or contain bibliographic references. Footnotes must be numbered throughout the text. Explanatory footnotes must be succinct and used carefully. Notes containing bibliographic references must follow the rules provided for in item 2.3. Use the automatic footnote and Arabic numbers function. Place the indicative numbers of the footnotes after the punctuation, without any spaces.

g. Images: if the article contains photographic images and / or graphic drawings, these must be sent in original format (.jpeg, .png, .tiff) and in separate files (not inserted inside the text itself), with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. In the file referring to the text, you must indicate the approximate location where figures, graphs, tables and / or tables should be included by inserting subtitles (in the language of the article).

2.3 Citation Guide

Citations must be made in the body of the text, using quotation marks, without italics or bold. The reference to the quotation must be made in a footnote.

a. Short Citations: Short quotes, with up to 70 words, must follow in the main text, using double quotes. Single quotes should be used for internal quotes. The punctuation must be placed outside the quotation marks. Ex .: “It is emphasized that “the dignity of the human being is inviolable. It must be 'respected and protected', forming the basis of all fundamental rights”.

b. Long Citations: The use of long citations (over 70 words) is not recommended, but when necessary, it should be included in a new paragraph. The paragraph must be preceded and followed by an extra space, without quotation marks.

c. Omissions, integrations and text modifications: Use square brackets to omit or to integrate / modify words within a quote.

2.4 Reference Guide

References made throughout the text must appear in footnotes, and also at the end of the text, in the section “Bibliographic References”.

Internal references

For internal references, use the following formula: “see above / below, section X”.

Primary sources and EU legislation

The first citation should include the full title of the source, followed by the abbreviation (in parentheses) that will be used in subsequent citations.

Example of first reference: Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (EU Charter)

Subsequent references: EU charter

Protocols

Example of first reference: Protocol no. 1 on the role of national parliaments in the European Union under the Treaty on European Union and the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (Protocol no. 1)

Subsequent references: Protocol no. 1

Declarations

Example of first reference: Declaration no. 15 on Article 27 on Treaty of the European Union (Declaration No. 15)

Subsequent references: Declaration no. 15

Acts of EU institutions

Example of first reference: Regulation (EU) no. 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters (Regulation no. 1215/2012)

Subsequent references: Regulation no. 1215/2012

EU primary and secondary law provisions

Example of first reference: Art. 13, para. 1, of Regulation (EU) no. 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters (Regulation no. 1215/2012)

Subsequent references: Art. 13, para. 1, of Regulation no. 1215/2012

Acts and documents of other international organizations

To cite acts and documents adopted by bodies of international organizations, the following information must be included: body that adopted the act, international organization (when pertinent), type of act, subject or title (if any), date, sequential number of the act (if any). In subsequent references, indicate the type of act, its sequential number (if any), the year in question (in parentheses).

Example of first reference: Security Council, United Nations, Resolution 2552 (2020) of 12 November 2020, S/RES/2552 (2020)

Subsequent references: Resolution 2552 (2020)

Bibliographic references

Names of authors: for any type of work, the name of the authors must be referenced indicating the initial of the first name of the Author followed by a period and the last name in lower case. Do not use commas. Do not allow spaces between the initials of the names. A period must follow each initial.

Examples:

J.S. Bergé

A. Tizzano

- Books

Use italics for published book titles. In the first reference, the title must be preceded by the name of the Author (s) (in the case of several authors, always include the names of all authors) and followed by the indication of the place (s) of publication ( in its original language), the Editor (preceded by a colon), the year of publication (preceded by a comma). In case of multiple editions of the same book, indicate the year of the consulted edition. Cite references to several pages as follows: p. 12 et seq. Subsequent references must indicate the name (s) of the Author (s), part of the title of the book, cit. between commas, the relevant page or pages.

Examples of first reference:

Individual work: N. Araújo, Direito Internacional Privado: teoria e prática brasileira, São Paulo: Editora Revista dos Tribunais, 2018, p. 89

Books with two or more authors: J. Dolinger, C. Tiburcio, Direito Internacional Privado, São Paulo: Editora Forense, 2017, p. 440 et. seq

Books published electronically (cite only the format consulted, indicate the URL, cite the relevant paragraph or chapter when page numbering does not apply): A.B. Moura (org), O Direito Internacional Privado Europeu: entre a harmonização e a fragmentação, Florianópolis: Editora Emais, 2019, available at <https://emaiseditora.com.br/livro/e-book-o-direito-internacional-privado-europeu-entre-a-harmonizacao-e-a-fragmentacao-copia/>

Examples of subsequent references:

N. Araújo, Direito Internacional Privado, cit., p. 62

J. Dolinger, C. Tiburcio, Direito Internacional Privado, cit., 2017, p. 10

A.B. Moura (org), O Direito Internacional Privado Europeu, cit., p. 68

- Articles

In the case of multiple authors, always include the names of all authors. Use italics for journal article titles. The title must be followed by: in, the name of the magazine or the review in italics (not preceded by a comma), the year of publication (preceded by a comma). In the first reference, the names of the journals or reviews must be indicated in full and in italics. Cite references to several pages as follows: p. 12 et seq. In the case of articles published in collective books, add before the name (s) of the Editor (s) and follow the rules for collections. Subsequent references must indicate the name (s) of the Author (s) (in lower case), part of the title of the article, cit. between commas, the relevant page or pages.

Examples of first reference:

J.S. Bergé, La hiérarchisation des droits et l'application du droit à différents niveaux, in L'application du droit national, international et européen, 2013, p. 263 et seq.

A.L.C. Caravaca, El Reglamento Roma I sobre la ley aplicable a las obligaciones contractuales: cuestiones escogidas, in Cuadernos de derecho transnacional, 2009, p. 52 et seq.

Examples of subsequent references:

J.S. Bergé, La hiérarchisation des droits, cit., p. 267

A.L.C. Caravaca, El Reglamento Roma I, cit., p. 52 et seq.

As for articles published online, the general rule for citing journals should be integrated by reference to the date of publication (if available) and the URL of the website, during the first reference.

Examples of first reference: M.A.R Vázquez, La ley aplicable a las obligaciones extracontractuales en el espacio europeo, in Revista Aranzadi de Derecho Patrimonial, 2010, p. 167 et seq., <https://idus.us.es/handle/11441/63859>

Examples of subsequent references: M.A.R Vázquez, La ley aplicable a las obligaciones extracontractuales, cit., p. 168

- Web pages of organizations / institutions / bodies / offices / agencies etc.

Please cite as follows: name of the institution / organization, page title in italics, link.

Examples:

European Union, Independent Ethics Body: strengthening transparency and integrity in the EU, available at <https://www.europarl.europa.eu/news/en/press-room/20201113IPR91601/>

United Nations, Violence, insecurity continues to plague South Sudan communities, available at <https://news.un.org/en/story/2020/11/1077982>

- Case law

The following rules apply to references to case law in footnotes. Within the text, refer only to the name of the parties (eg Australia v. Japan).

Court of Justice of the European Union

Examples of first reference: Court of Justice of the European Union, judgment of 18 November 2020, case C-463/19, Syndicat CFTC du personnel de la Caisse primaire d'assurance maladie de la Moselle v. Caisse primaire d'assurance maladie de Moselle, para. 15

Examples of subsequent references: Syndicat CFTC du personnel de la Caisse primaire d'assurance maladie de la Moselle v. Caisse primaire d'assurance maladie de Moselle, cit., para. 20

European Court of Human Rights

Examples of first reference: European Court of Human Rights, decision of 20 October 2020, application no. 71591/17, Gröning v. Germany, para. 30

Examples of subsequent references: Gröning v. Germany, cit., para. 45

International Court of Justice

Examples of first reference: International Court of Justice, Whaling in the Antarctic (Australia v. Japan), judgment of 31 March 2014, para. 25

Examples of subsequent references: Whaling in the Antarctic (Australia v. Japan), cit., para. 12

Judgments of other Courts and Tribunals

Cite the name of the court or tribunal, date of the decision, reference number (if any), name of the parties (if any). In subsequent references, use the name of the court or tribunal, the name of the parties or, failing that, the reference number and the year in question.

Examples of first reference:

United States Supreme Court, June 12 of 1972, no. 71-322, The Bremen v. Zapata Off-Shore Co.

Superior Tribunal de Justiça, September 1st of 2020, Recurso Especial no. 1.799.932 – PR, WHB Automotive S/A v. Financiadora de Estudos e Projetos – FINEP

Examples of subsequent references:

United States Supreme Court, The Bremen v. Zapata Off-Shore Co., 1972.

Superior Tribunal de Justiça, WHB Automotive S/A v. Financiadora de Estudos e Projetos – FINEP, 2020

2.5 Bibliographic References

At the end of the text, all bibliographic references used throughout the article should be listed. The references must be listed in alphabetical and chronological order, following the model of the first reference indicated in item 2.4.

2.6 Abbreviations

Do not use acronyms on the first occurrence. Provide the full name of the relevant institution or body, followed by the abbreviation in parentheses. In subsequent citations, use only the acronym.

Examples of first reference:

European Union (UE)

United Nations (UN)

Examples of subsequent references:

EU

UN

The following abbreviations must be used consistently throughout the manuscript:

- p./pp. (page/pages);
- Art./Arts. (Article/Articles)
- para./paras (paragraph/paragraphs)
- no./nos. (number/numbers)
- see;
- use e.g. (short form of exempli gratia) to give an example or a series of examples, and i.e. (short form of id est) to explain a concept introduced in the same sentence.
- use v. for versus.

Examples:

Art. 6, para. 2, TUE

See R. Schütze, European Union Law, Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2015, p. 30 et seq.

See R. Schütze, European Union Law, cit., pp. 34-35